

International Truck Receives Order For 1,050 Trucks

Customer Indicates Plans to Order Additional 7,950 Trucks Later This Month International Truck Signs Three-Year Supply Agreement for International® ProStar®, LoneStar® Class 8 Tractors Powered by Cummins ISX-15

LISLE, Ill., July 21, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- International Truck today announced it reached a multi-year supply agreement and secured orders for 1,050 new Class 8 on-highway tractors from a leading provider of fleet and owner-operator leasing services. In addition, the customer indicated it intends to order an additional 7,950 trucks later this month for delivery through the end of 2017.

The orders would consist primarily of International® ProStar® and LoneStar® vehicles powered by Cummins® ISX-15 engines and spread across the next three years.

"Customers continue to recognize that the heavy-duty products we are building today are among the best we have built in decades, with uptime and fuel economy performance that leads the industry," said Bill Kozek, president, Navistar Truck and Parts. "This customer has experienced our new products firsthand and their International models are leading the way in fuel economy performance when compared to competitive models."
