

Navistar Statement on FMTV Ruling

WARRENVILLE, Ill. (December 14, 2009) Navistar Defense, LLC was informed today that the Government Accountability Office (GAO) sustained its protest of the Army Tank-automotive and Armaments Command's (TACOM) award of the Family of Medium Tactical Vehicles (FMTV) program.

In response to the ruling, Navistar released the following statement from Archie Massicotte, president, Navistar Defense:

"We appreciate the time and effort the GAO invested in the review of the FMTV solicitation process," said Archie Massicotte, president, Navistar Defense. "We welcome today's ruling and we will wait for further direction from the Army regarding what may be required of us moving forward."
