WARRENVILLE, Ill. (Feb. 15, 2010) – Navistar Financial Corporation (NFC), a wholly owned subsidiary of Navistar International Corporation (NYSE: NAV), has sold $250 million of wholesale floor plan notes in a two-year 144-A transaction to support its dealer inventory funding.

This is NFC's first asset sale of calendar-year 2010, and it brings NFC's total wholesale capacity to $1.1 billion when combined with previously issued public and private funding. NFC initially sought $200 million and increased the amount to $250 million due to strong demand.

"As the economic recovery continues, we continue to seek the most cost-effective financing solutions for our dealers and customers to support the profitable growth of Navistar."

The deal is eligible for funding under the U.S. Federal Reserve's TALF (Term Asset-Backed Securities Loan Facility) program, which offers loans to investors to support the purchase of asset-backed securities.
