

Navistar's PARTSMART Parts To Be Sold Via Amazon.com

WARRENVILLE, Ill. – (July 18, 2011) – Navistar Parts is excited to offer customers the option to order PARTSMART truck and bus parts, leveraging the infrastructure of e-commerce giant Amazon.com.

"Amazon.com is a known, trusted online retailer that will help us connect with customers on a whole new level," said Patti Corso, e-commerce manager, Navistar Parts. "Navistar Parts was the first truck and bus original equipment manufacturer (OEM) to sell truck and bus parts online and this partnership with Amazon.com extends our reach and offers a truly consumer-focused purchasing experience."

With Amazon.com's popular e-commerce platform, shoppers can customize their shipping preferences (next day, 2-day, and ground), see product reviews and use a variety of payment options including Amazon.com gift cards. The sophisticated search capabilities of Amazon.com allow customers to search by item, price, make and model, and see suggested products that complement their selection.

"With www.Amazon.com/PARTSMART, it will be simple to identify the parts you want and the related products you need," Corso added. "The customer-friendly aspects of the site are wonderful additions to Navistar Parts' e-commerce options."

Navistar Parts' existing e-commerce site, www.partsmartparts.com, will also continue to offer parts and promotions.

"This move is about opening up choices for our customers," said Corso.

The PARTSMART parts collection offers quality all-makes truck and bus parts at competitive prices. All PARTSMART parts come with a one-year, parts-only replacement warranty and can be purchased at www.partsmartparts.com, www.Amazon.com/PARTSMART or any one of more than 500 International® truck or IC Bus™ dealers in the U.S.
