

IC BUS TO PROVIDE 300 SCHOOL BUSES TO COLUMBUS, OHIO CITY SCHOOLS

LISLE, Ill. - May 9, 2013 - IC Bus today announced it won a bid to deliver 300 CE Series school buses to Columbus City Schools in Columbus, Ohio. IC Bus will deliver the buses through its IC Bus dealer, Rush Bus Centers, in Columbus, Ohio.

"IC Bus is proud to partner with Columbus City Schools and we look forward to helping them with their student transportation needs for the next school year," said John McKinney, president, IC Bus. "Furthermore this recent order demonstrates our customers' continued confidence in our products as well as acknowledges the unmatched support provided by the industry's strongest dealer network."

The CE Series buses for Columbus City Schools will be powered by MaxxForce® 7 engines and seat 65 passengers. The buses' 16-gauge steel side sheets and 19,800-lb. rear axle with a 21,000-lb. air ride suspension improve safety while providing drivers with a smooth ride.

The buses will be built at the IC Bus assembly plant in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Deliveries will begin in July 2013.

"We are honored that Columbus City Schools has confidence in us to provide our unparalleled customer support for their fleet of IC Bus vehicles as they safely transport the city's children," said Rusty Rush, president and chief executive officer, Rush Enterprises, Inc. "The school district will benefit from our exceptional service catered around their needs."
